September 16, 2020

Dear Parents,

Today (Wednesday, September 16) marks the 20th day of our new school year. I would like to commend our students for continuing to be active and engaged learners in our "distance learning" format. Our teachers and classroom assistants continue to be impressed and pleased with the overall level of engagement in grade levels throughout our school.

This is usually the time of year when all of our classrooms have found their "rhythm" and are working hard to meet the academic objectives that are introduced in each grade level. I have requested that our teachers contact parents if children are not consistently participating in zoom sessions and/or not turning in assignments. Please take the time to address these issues with your child if a teacher contacts you to ask for your assistance in helping your child to be present, on task and responsible for completing and turning in assignments. We appreciate your support so much!

On an entirely different note, our Kenwood Education Foundation continues to work hard to provide the needed funding to support our enrichment programs, our classroom assistants, the preschool and our fantastic school lunch/culinary program. In the spirit of community support, the Foundation has ordered a "dunk tank" to be placed in the vicinity of the front entrance of the school during pick up time (1:00-3:00) on Friday, September 25th. For a donation of $10, you can have 3 tosses to dunk the designated sitter in the cold water (I believe that would be me...). Donations can be in cash or through the Kenwood Education Foundation's website. If you would like to take a turn on the "dunk tank," I'm sure that our KEF vice-president (Evan Howland) would be happy to provide you with a time slot. It's all in fun and all donations go to the Foundation to benefit our children this year and in the years to come.
